

Fishbone

Fishbone analysis is a cause and effect tool. You consider the problem at the 'head of the fish' then work through the various causes that might arise through each of the spines that lead to the problem.

