

Force Field Analysis

Provides a framework for looking at the factors that influences a situation (+ enabler) and those forces which drive away from a goal or act as a blocker (- detractor). Working in a group format to list these then enables you to understand where blockers are and you can start to consider how to remove these.

Force Field Analysis Template (Levin 1951)

